Meal Makers Catering was founded in 2002 by a group of young and dynamic People with innovative management style. The Idea of setting up this company came while they were working in Chennai and that was the day when they pulled together resources that included his vast skills in the hospitality industry, to come up with a company that is fit to compete with the best in the industry, added on to their personal profile. As a company we believe that a part of responsible business is to support and work with the community. To that end we work with numerous other local non-profit organizations.

Most people will tell you that catering is all about taste. We disagree! At Meal Makers Catering we believe that vision is paramount. In 2002 we got together and organized a unique catering company.
